The University of Zagreb, Faculty of Organization and Informatics (UNIZG FOI) is located in Varaždin, a city in northern Croatia, approximately 80 km from the capital, Zagreb.

UNIZG FOI operates across three buildings, commonly referred to as FOI 1, FOI 2, and FOI 3.

Located at Pavlinska 2, on the main city square, this is the central hub of the faculty, housing most staff offices and serving as the primary venue for events, including FOI International Days.

FOI 2

Located at Prilaz Fausta Vrančića 3, primarily used for teaching activities, especially for the Economics of Entrepreneurship study programme.

ARRIVAL TO VARAŽDIN

Varaždin is easily accessible by car (highway) or bus, and also by train, but connections in Croatia are generally slow, with only a few faster trains per day.

From Zagreb Airport, you have two main options:

- Taxi/Private transfer – This is the most convenient option, especially if shared with other travelers. Our guests often use City Airport Taxis for van rentals.
- Public transport – Take the airport shuttle bus to the main Zagreb bus station, then transfer to a regular bus to Varaždin. Buses are frequent, and the journey takes 1 hour 15 minutes to 1 hour 30 minutes. You can check schedules here: Zagreb Bus Station.

ALSO IN CROATIA

We highly recommend spending some time in Zagreb capital before or after the event. The nearby Međimurje and Zagorje regions, with their picturesque green hills, vineyards and rich gastronomy, are a must-visit.

If you have more time, consider a trip to the coast – it's a great idea to visit the Adriatic in May! The nearest coastal city is Rijeka, an industrial and harbor city, but with great vibes, culture and gastronomy. The nearby Opatija Riviera is beautiful and well worth visiting.

Other great options for a two-day trip include the Istrian Peninsula or the historic city of Zadar.
